Re: Plea Agreement with Christopher Odonits

Dear Mr. Gamburg:

This letter sets forth the plea agreement between your client, Christopher Odonits ("Odonits" or the "Defendant"), and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey ("this Office"). The plea agreement will expire if not accepted in writing by April 4, 2022.

Charge

Conditioned on the understandings specified below, this Office will accept a guilty plea from Odonits to Count One of the Indictment (Crim. No. 21-310 (KSH)), charging Odonits with conspiracy to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine, a Schedule II controlled substance, contrary to 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A), in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846. If Odonits enters a guilty plea and is sentenced on this charge, and otherwise fully complies with all of the terms of this agreement, this Office will not initiate any further criminal charges against Odonits for conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute methamphetamine on or about November 20, 2019. However, in the event that a guilty plea in this matter is not entered for any reason or the judgment of conviction entered as a result of this guilty plea does not remain in full force and effect, Odonits agrees that any dismissed charges and any other charges that are not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date this agreement is signed by Odonits may be commenced against him, notwithstanding the expiration of the limitations period after Odonits signs the agreement.

Sentencing

The violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846 to which Odonits agrees to plead guilty carries a statutory maximum prison sentence of life in prison, a statutory mandatory minimum prison sentence of ten years in prison, and a statutory maximum fine equal to the greatest of: (1) $10,000,000 or (2) twice the gross profits or other proceeds to Odonits. Fines imposed by the sentencing judge may be subject to the payment of interest.

The sentence to be imposed upon Odonits is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge, subject to the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3551-3742, and the sentencing judge's consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, not mandatory. The sentencing judge may impose any reasonable sentence up to and including the statutory maximum term of imprisonment and the maximum statutory fine. This Office cannot and does not make any representation or promise as to what guideline range may be found by the sentencing judge, or as to what sentence Odonits ultimately will receive.

Further, in addition to imposing any other penalty on Odonits, the sentencing judge: (1) will order Odonits to pay an assessment of $100 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013, which assessment must be paid by the date of sentencing; (2) may order Odonits to pay restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663 et seq.; (3) may deny Odonits certain statutorily defined benefits, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 862 and 862a; and (4) pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 841, must require Odonits to serve a term of supervised release of at least 5 years, which will begin at the expiration of any term of imprisonment imposed. Should Odonits be placed on a term of supervised release and subsequently violate any of the conditions of supervised release before the expiration of its term, Odonits may be sentenced to not more than 5 years' imprisonment in addition to any prison term previously imposed, regardless of the statutory maximum term of imprisonment set forth above and without credit for time previously served on post-release supervision, and may be sentenced to an additional term of supervised release.

Rights of This Office Regarding Sentencing

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, this Office reserves its right to take any position with respect to the appropriate sentence to be imposed on Odonits by the sentencing judge, to correct any misstatements relating to the sentencing proceedings, and to provide the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office all law and information relevant to sentencing, favorable or otherwise. In addition, this Office may inform the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office of: (1) this agreement; and (2) the full nature and extent of Odonits's activities and relevant conduct with respect to this case.

Stipulations

This Office and Odonits agree to stipulate at sentencing to the statements set forth in the attached Schedule A, which hereby is made a part of this plea agreement. This agreement to stipulate, however, cannot and does not bind the sentencing judge, who may make independent factual findings and may reject any or all of the stipulations entered into by the parties. To the extent that the parties do not stipulate to a particular fact or legal conclusion, each reserves the right to argue the existence of and the effect of any such fact or conclusion upon the sentence. Moreover, this agreement to stipulate on the part of this Office is based on the information and evidence that this Office possesses as of the date of this agreement. Thus, if this Office obtains or receives additional evidence or information prior to sentencing that it determines to be credible and to be materially in conflict with any stipulation in the attached Schedule A, this Office shall not be bound by any such stipulation. A determination that any stipulation is not binding shall not release either this Office or Odonits from any other portion of this agreement, including any other stipulation. If the sentencing court rejects a stipulation, both parties reserve the right to argue on appeal or at post-sentencing proceedings that the sentencing court was within its discretion and authority to do so. These stipulations do not restrict this Office's right to respond to questions from the Court and to correct misinformation that has been provided to the Court.

Waiver of Appeal and Post-Sentencing Rights

As set forth in Schedule A, this Office and Odonits waive certain rights to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion after sentencing, including but not limited to an appeal under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 or a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

Forfeiture

Odonits agrees that as part of his acceptance of responsibility and pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853, Odonits will forfeit to the United States any and all property constituting or derived from any proceeds obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the offense charged in the Indictment and any and all property used or intended to be used in any manner or part to commit and to facilitate the commission of such offense.

Odonits further consents to the entry of a forfeiture judgment in the amount representing the proceeds he obtained as a result of committing the offense charged in the Indictment and the property used or intended to be used in any manner or part to commit and to facilitate the commission of such offense, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 (the "Forfeiture Judgment"). Payment of the Forfeiture Judgment shall be made by certified or bank check payable to the United States Marshals Service with the criminal docket number noted on the face of the check. Odonits shall cause said check to be delivered to the Asset Forfeiture and Money Laundering Unit, United States Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey, 970 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102.

Odonits waives the requirements of Rules 32.2 and 43(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Odonits consents to the entry of a Consent Judgment of Forfeiture that will be final as to Odonits prior to Odonits's sentencing. Odonits understands that criminal forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the court to advise him of this pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure at the guilty plea proceeding. It is further understood that any forfeiture of Odonits's assets shall not be treated as satisfaction of any fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or any other penalty the Court may impose upon her in addition to forfeiture. Odonits hereby waives any and all claims that this forfeiture constitutes an excessive fine and agrees that this forfeiture does not violate the Eighth Amendment.

Immigration Consequences

Odonits understands that, if he is not a citizen of the United States, his guilty plea to the charged offense will likely result in his being subject to immigration proceedings and removed from the United States by making him deportable, excludable, or inadmissible, or ending his naturalization. Odonits understands that the immigration consequences of this plea will be imposed in a separate proceeding before the immigration authorities. Odonits wants and agrees to plead guilty to the charged offense regardless of any immigration consequences of this plea, even if this plea will cause his removal from the United States. Odonits understands that he is bound by his guilty plea regardless of any immigration consequences of the plea. Accordingly, Odonits waives any and all challenges to his guilty plea and to his sentence based on any immigration consequences, and agrees not to seek to withdraw his guilty plea, or to file a direct appeal or any kind of collateral attack challenging his guilty plea, conviction, or sentence, based on any immigration consequences of his guilty plea.

Other Provisions

This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and cannot bind other federal, state, or local authorities. However, this Office will bring this agreement to the attention of other prosecuting offices, if requested to do so.

This agreement was reached without regard to any civil or administrative matters that may be pending or commenced in the future against Odonits. This agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof (including the Internal Revenue Service and Immigration and Customs Enforcement) or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceeding against Odonits.

No provision of this agreement shall preclude Odonits from pursuing in an appropriate forum, when permitted by law, an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that Odonits received constitutionally ineffective assistance of counsel.

No Other Promises

This agreement constitutes the plea agreement between Odonits and this Office and supersedes any previous agreements between them. No additional promises, agreements, or conditions have been made or will be made unless set forth in writing and signed by the parties.

Very truly yours,

PHILIP R. SELLINGER
United States Attorney

Plea Agreement with Christopher Odonits
SCHEDULE A

1. This Office and defendant Odonits agree to stipulate to the following facts:

a. The version of the United States Sentencing Guidelines effective November 1, 2021 applies in this case. The applicable guideline is U.S.S.G. § 2D1.1.

b. This offense involved more than 500 grams but less than 1.3 kilograms of actual methamphetamine, and that this amount shall be considered relevant conduct as defined in U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3.

c. Pursuant to the change in law effected by Section 402(b) of the First Step Act of 2018 (the "Act"), Odonits may be eligible for the relief set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f) (the "Statutory Safety-Valve"). That is because the Act, which became effective on December 21, 2018, broadens the class of defendants who are eligible to receive relief under the Statutory-Safety Valve.

d. Within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(2) and U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2(a)(2), Odonits did not use violence or credible threats of violence or possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon (or induce another participant to do so) in connection with the offense.

e. Within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(3) and U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2(a)(3), the offense did not result in death or serious bodily injury to any person.

f. As of the date of this letter, within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(4) and U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2(a)(4), Odonits was not an organizer, leader, manager or supervisor and was not engaged in a continuing criminal enterprise, as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 848.

g. Whether Odonits meets the criterion set forth in U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2(a)(1) and (5) has not yet been determined. If applicable, whether Odonits meets the criterion set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(1), as amended by the Act has not yet been determined.

2. If the sentencing court accepts the factual stipulations set forth above, both parties waive the right to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that the sentencing court erred in doing so. Otherwise, both parties reserve the right to file, oppose, or take any position in any appeal, collateral attack, or proceeding involving post-sentencing motions or writs.

3. The United States Sentencing Commission has not yet amended the corresponding provision of the United States Sentencing Guidelines — U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2 — to conform that provision to the Statutory Safety-Valve. Therefore, if, at the time of sentencing, the Court determines that Odonits meets the criteria set forth in the safety valve provisions in 18 U.S.C § 3553(f)(1)–(5) and U.S.S.G § 5C1.2(a)(2)–(5), this Office will move for a two-level downward variance pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Doing so would give Odonits the benefit now of any later conforming amendment to U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2. If this Office so moves, Odonits shall not seek a reduced sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c) in the event that after Odonits is sentenced in this case, the Sentencing Commission amends U.S.S.G. § 5C1.2(a)(1) to conform it to the current version of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(f)(1) and makes that amendment retroactive.
